Ordinary Life

Spiritual life is like living water that springs up from the very depths of our own spiritual experience.

In spiritual life everyone has to drink from his or her own well.

O Lord,
many have gathered
around the fountain
but there is nothing in the well.

Ordinary Life

Lord, there are many standing around the drinking
trough, but there is nothing in the well.

Ordinary Life

We want to “shrink” the ego.

And, expand the Self.

The twin pillars of our culture's preoccupation with materialism are consumerism and entertainment.

Be forewarned: the word of God confronts, converts, and consoles us - in that order.

The suffering, injustice and devastation on this planet are too great to settle for any infantile gospel or any infantile Jesus.

You must find God in yourself . . .

and, find yourself in God.

Who you are is who you are in God.

No more.

No less.

Do you accept the freedom and power God gives you to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms
they present themselves?
