

Ordinary Life

There is all around us a
Sacred Mystery, a Divine Reality.

Ordinary Life

The teachings of Jesus are likely more than any of us can embody or fulfill in our efforts to live within our culture, to stand against our culture and to live in service to our culture.

“continuous partial attention”

Ordinary Life

Led by one of Jesus' disciples, the police show up at the place Jesus and the rest of his followers were gathered.

Because Jesus had often gone to the place, Jesus' followers knew the place too. And the police seized Jesus and held him fast. And the disciples all deserted Jesus and ran away.

They brought Jesus before the high priest.

The ranking priests bound Jesus and turned him over to Pilate, the Roman governor.

Then Pilate had Jesus flogged and turned him over to be crucified.

And the Roman soldiers
bring him to the place Golgotha (which means "Place of the skull"). And the soldiers crucify him.

Now some women were observing this from a distance, among whom were Mary of Magdala, and Mary the mother of James the younger and Joses, and Salome. These women had regularly followed and assisted him when he was in Galilee, along with many other women who had come up to Jerusalem in his company.

Then Jesus breathed his last.

Ordinary Life

Don't screw it up.

Ordinary Life

The journey into wholeness is a journey to life through death.

Ordinary Life

The experience of Sacred Mystery is not something we control.

Ordinary Life

There are NO dead ends.

Ordinary Life

We are who we are in God.

No more!

No less!
