spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Ordinary Life

I don't know exactly what a prayer is.
I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down
into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass,
how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields,
which is what I have been doing all day.
Tell me, what else should I have done?
Doesn't everything die at last, and too soon?
Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?

BY MARY OLIVER (1935–2019)

Jesus 101

Ordinary Life

Why do you notice the splinter in your brother or sister's eye, yet do not perceive the wooden beam in your own eye? How can you say to your sister or brother, "Let me remove that splinter from your eye," while the wooden beam is in your own eye?

Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone? Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask?

“Everyone wants to know what Jesus would do. No one ever asks how Jesus is feeling about his complicated relationship with his father.”

Religion has taught people “what to see” and not “how to see.”

All of our relationships with everything and every one are shaped by projection
and transference.

We have a sacred responsibility
to protect the future for all people everywhere.

That way we have something valuable and viable to give to the future.
