Ordinary Life

Albert Einstein
1879 - 1955

No problem can be solved with the same consciousness that created it.

Our primary purpose is to experience on-going psycho-spiritual transformation.

Pulling out the chair
Beneath your mind
And watching you fall upon
God-
What else is there
For Hafiz to do
That is any fun in this world!

They said to Yeshua,

"Come, then,
Let us fast
and pray."

He said to them,
"Have I sinned?
Have I been overcome?
No, only when the bridegroom
leaves the bridal chamber,
will it be time to fast and pray."

The basic reality of God is plain enough. Open your eyes and there it is! By taking a long and thoughtful look at what God has created, people have always been able to see what their eyes as such can't see: eternal power, for instance, and the mystery of God's divine being.

Science without religion is lame.

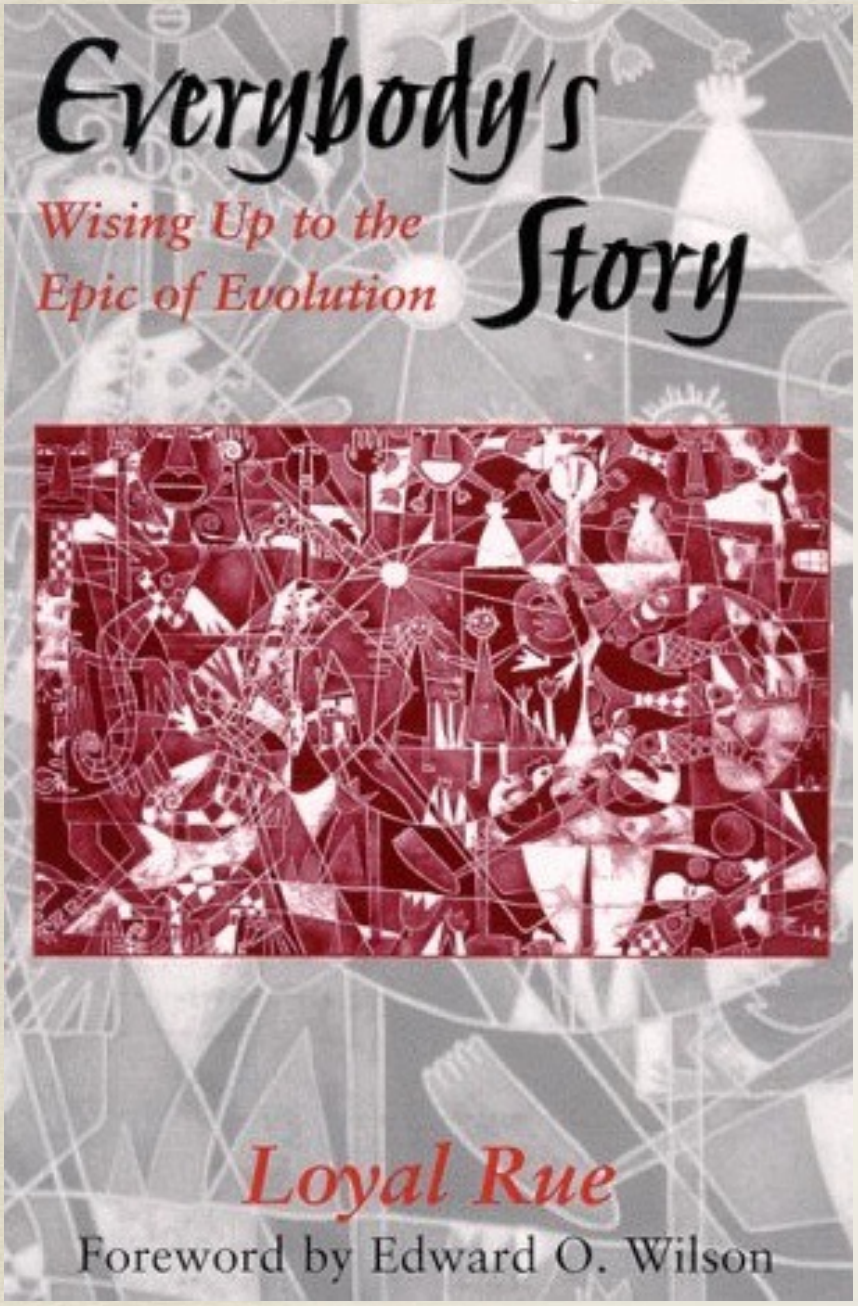
Religion without science is blind.

Ordinary Life

Two essential orientations -

What is real?

What is important?



This story inspires us to express our gratitude to the past by accepting a solemn and collective responsibility for the future.

Though I am not you, I am not other than you either.

Though I am not God, I am not other than God either.

Ordinary Life

Prayer is the awareness we have of making a response to and having a relationship with the God who is ever present around us and within us.
