If a group gets stuck at an adolescent level, it behaves like an adolescent.

The harvest is abundant.
The reapers are few.
Implore the Master of Harvest
to send out workers.

“To speak of the love for humanity is meaningless. There is no such thing as humanity. What we call humanity has a name, was born, lives on a street, gets hungry, needs all the particular things we need. As an abstract, it has no reality whatsoever.”

One of the things we can do is to become aware of how we project on to our institutions and on to other people aspects of ourselves that block our assuming personable responsibility for the world and our experience of the world(s) in which we live.

Ordinary Life

How in heaven's name do we do this?

We begin by having the goal of living in daily abiding awareness of God's abiding awareness in us.

Living in daily abiding awareness of God's abiding awareness in us.

Conforming our hearts to the love that is giving itself to us as our life.

Eugene Peterson

Ordinary Life

Go forth for God, go to the world in peace;
be of good courage, armed with heavenly grace,
in God's good Spirit daily to increase till in the kingdom we see face to face.

Ordinary Life

Go forth for God, go to the world in love;
strengthen the faint, give courage to
the weak;
help the afflicted; richly from above God's love supplies the grace and power to seek.

Ordinary Life

Go forth for God, go to the world in strength,
hold fast the good, be urgent for the right;
render to no one evil; Christ at length shall overcome all darkness with his light.

Ordinary Life

Go forth for God, go to the world in
joy,
to serve God's people every day and hour,
and serving Christ, our every gift employ,
rejoicing in the Holy Spirit's power.

No matter where you go this week, no matter what happens, remember this: you carry precious cargo. So, watch your step.
