“Yeshua said,”

Ordinary Life

In Thomas, Jesus is not an earth-invading miracle worker who skedaddles as soon as he is done.

His students asked him,

“On what day
will the kingdom
arrive?”

“Its coming cannot be perceived from the outside,” he said.

“You cannot say,
‘Look, it’s over there,’ or
‘No, here it is.’

The Father’s realm
is spreading out
across the face of the earth,
and humanity is not able to perceive it.”

peace, love and joy trumps
everything else

we are constantly dislodged from the perception that the point we've come to is far enough

The kingdom of God is an integral part of that which we are and the context in which we live.

Ordinary Life

“Its coming cannot be perceived from the outside,” he said.

“You cannot say,
‘Look, it’s over there,’ or
‘No, here it is.’

The Father’s realm
is spreading out
across the face of the earth,
and humanity is not able
to perceive it.”

The chief feature of the ego is that it's never here.
