HOW MY MIND HAS CHANGED

Essays from the Christian Century

13 prominent Christian theologians speak of their journeys of faith and of the questions that have shaped their writing and scholarship.

"This illuminating volume, the most theologically diverse in the series, is a compelling and worthy successor to the five that preceded it."

—Gary Dorrien, Union Theological Seminary

"This collection gathers together many of the world's most insightful and engaging thinkers, and the result is a delightful intellectual feast!"

—L. Gregory Jones, Duke Divinity School

GOD SAID IT,
I BELIEVE IT,
THAT SETTLES IT!

Their relationship with Jesus

removed their fear of death,
freed them from guilt,

To know God is to know who God knows us to be.

Their relationship with Jesus

removed their fear of death,

freed them from guilt,

allowed them to step outside the confining restraints of the ego.

People are changed by feeling certain that they are totally loved by the divine power behind the universe.

The three basic temptations are -

the need to be effective, successful, relevant, to make things happen.

the need to be right.

the need for control or power.

When it comes to following Jesus and his teachings, there is nothing to attain, just to realize.

If you do not fast from the cosmos,
you will never grasp Reality.

If you cannot find rest
on the day of rest,
you will never feast
your eyes on God.

One of the fundamental needs of the Self is “rest.”

Bad religion is -

selfish piety

thin morality

private purity

Repent: Change your Mind.

Love God.

Love your neighbor.

Fast from the world.

Feast on Sacred Mystery.
