Ordinary Life

There is a guidance system that is safe enough for us to entrust our lives to - no matter how fierce the storms outside.

Christianity is NOT about believing certain things to be true.

Christianity is PRIMARYLY about relationships.

Christianity is NOT about having
the truth,

Christianity is about a way of making sense of our human experience and making our human experience meaningful.

For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me.

We can easily miss the consistent emphasis in the teachings of Jesus on justice, simplicity and equality.

As we go forward,
away from the "no-
longer" toward the
"not-yet," let us use
Jesus as our GPS.

Love

living in the currently known cosmos

embracing other traditions

including the suffering not believing in miracles but seeing all as miraculous striving for non-duality

The only way to bring about the new is to make room for it.

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference. Thy will, not mine, be done."

A promotional photograph of Fred Rogers, the host of the children's television series "Mister Rogers' Neighborhood". He is seated in a wooden chair, smiling warmly at the camera. He is wearing a light blue collared shirt, a dark patterned tie, and a tan cable-knit cardigan sweater. His right hand rests on the chair's backrest. The background features a light blue wall with a patterned scarf hanging on the left and a large green plant on the right. The overall tone is warm and inviting.

Ordinary Life

Even if no one knows or sees what you do to give flesh to peace, love and joy, the effect of it is no less than if someone made a feature
documentary about it
